

FOX RIVER GROVE Memorial Library

Summer 2020

A Note from Nicole...

Library Service in the Time of Pandemic

First and foremost, let me thank the patrons of Fox River Grove Memorial Library for your patience and support in this difficult time. Your response to our online materials and programs and your kind words sent by email, social media, and around town (while at least six feet away, of course) have meant the world to us.

Delivery and Returns

Although the library building will remain closed to the public for the time being, our delivery service lets us get materials into the hands of patrons. If you haven't tried it yet, please call 847.639.2274 to make a request.

Our bookdrop is only intermittently open as we have limited capacity for receiving materials due to necessary safety procedures. We will continue to notify patrons by email and on our digital sign regarding bookdrop status. Delivery service does not include returning materials. All late fees are currently suspended.

Digital Resources

Our digital resources are, as always, available 24/7/365. See page 2 to get started and for information on our brand-new digital service: Hoopla Digital!

We will continue to offer online library card registration, programming, and other remote services throughout this time. See page 2 and 3 for more.

Keep in Touch

Please continue to follow our Facebook and Instagram accounts for daily updates on library and community news.

We thank you for your understanding and look forward to seeing you again as soon as we can. We miss you! Stay safe and healthy.
